Competition

In the name of God, Most Gracious, Most Merciful

Ruku 1 Aya 1-8	Competition has distracted you until you visit graveyards. Nevertheless you soon will know; once more, you soon shall know!
	Of course, if you realized with absolute certainty how you will (all) see Hades, then you would see it with the [very] eye of certainty; next you will be questioned concerning bliss on that day.
